Let's Start!

It's movie night tonight ... yes! What would you like to watch?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions, and invitations in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to go to the movie theater?
- Do you prefer to watch movies at home?
- What kind of movies do you like?

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can talk about movies.
- I can make and respond to offers and invitations.

Let's Explore!

Peter and Vanessa want to hang out and watch a movie. Vanessa wants to watch a rom-com. Does Peter agree?

* "Rom-com" means a romantic comedy.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hey! Would you like to go out? It's Saturday night!
Vanessa: Hmm ... I don't know ... I don't really feel like it. How about staying in?
Peter: Ok. We could watch a movie and hang out here.
Vanessa: Good idea. I have a couple of new DVDs.
Peter: Let's have a look ... hmm ... They're romantic comedies!
Vanessa: I love rom-coms!
Peter: Really? I prefer action movies.
Vanessa: I'm not surprised. You only watch blockbusters!
Peter: They go well with popcorn!
Vanessa: I don't want to watch another loud movie!
Peter: Fine. What else don't you like?
Vanessa: I don't like depressing movies.
Peter: Me neither. How about a spy thriller?
Vanessa: Ooh ... that sounds better.
Peter: I have one on my computer.
Vanessa: Cool!

Let's Practice!

Let's make plans for Saturday night!

*Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: feel like it, hang out, Good idea, Let's have, Would you.
