Let's Start!

Burgers, fries, milkshakes ... Yum! Would you like to have them every day?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about food, eating and meals in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you go out to eat?
- Do you usually order the same thing?
- Do you like to try new things often?

Can Do Statements

- I can make and respond to offers and invitations.
- I can express preference.
- I can talk about routines using expressions of frequency.

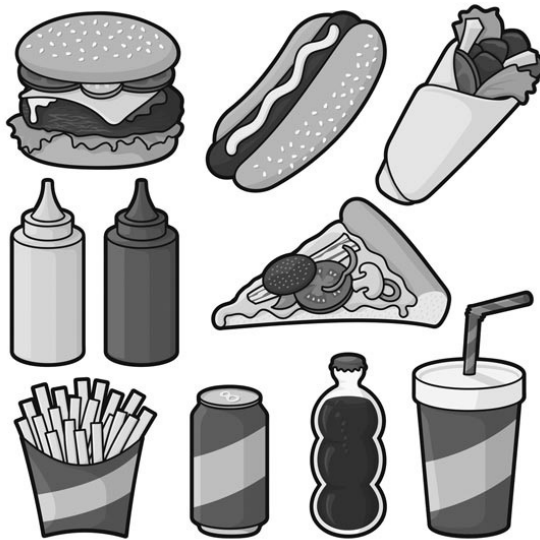

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Peter talk about their eating habits. Are they similar? Let's find out!

* A "habit" is something you do regularly.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Thanks for dinner, Peter.
Peter: I'm happy you like Thai Basil.
Vanessa: I love to discover food from around the world.
Peter: Yes. Cambridge always has a lot to offer.
Vanessa: Yeah. I guess I should try new things more often.
Peter: Why do you say that?
Vanessa: I always order the same things.
Peter: Me too sometimes. For example, I usually have a burger and fries at the Willow Diner.
Vanessa: Those fries are so good! I love their strawberry milkshakes too.
Peter: I rarely drink milkshakes. I'd rather have orange juice, or lemonade.
Vanessa: Those are good too, especially with scrambled eggs.
Peter: We should have breakfast there this weekend!
Vanessa: I would prefer to go next week. I don't want to get fat!

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Select the correct answer.

1. Vanessa ...

- ☐ should try new things more often.
- ☐ should try new things next week.
- ☐ should try new things this weekend.

2. Peter ...

- ☐ often drinks milkshakes.
- ☐ rarely drinks milkshakes.
- ☐ always eats milkshakes.

Let's Practice!

Peter and Vanessa talk about their preferences.

*Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: would prefer, always, more often, should have.

Peter: Cambridge _____ has a lot to offer.

Vanessa: Yeah. I guess I should try new things _____.

Peter: We _____ breakfast there this weekend!

Vanessa: I _____ to go next week.

Extension Activity

What are your eating habits? Where do you usually go to eat? Would you like to try new things more often?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Make a list of 5 restaurants in your neighborhood.
- Talk about the food in each place.
- Would you like to go to these places more often?
- Use the chart below.
- Write a sentence about each restaurant.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I use should, would and could to express preference.

☐ ☐

I write 5 sentences about going to a restaurant.

☐ ☐

I use expressions of frequency to talk about restaurants.

Name of the Place	What kind of food is it?	Do you go there often?	Would you like to go there more often?

Target Words

- to discover (verb): to find out; to learn something new e.g. There are so many new restaurants to discover downtown!
- a lot to offer (expression): many things you can do there e.g. Cambridge has a lot to offer.
- diner (noun): a restaurant serving typical North American dishes e.g. I feel like going to the Willow Diner.
- milkshake (noun): a drink made with milk foam and ice cream
e.g. I love strawberry milkshakes!
- scrambled eggs (noun): a dish made of eggs beaten in a pan e.g. I would love to eat scrambled eggs.
- to get fat (expression): to put on weight (not polite to say to someone else)
e.g. I shouldn't eat so many fries. I don't want to get fat!

Learning Points

Using Modals with Expressions of Frequency

You use the modals could, would, and should with expressions of frequency to talk about preferences.

The expression of frequency goes at the end of the sentence.

Modals for Preference	Expressions of Frequency
I would prefer to ... We should ... I would like to ... I'd rather ...	once a week every day more often twice a week

Examples:

• Albert: I'd like to eat pizza every day!

Brenda: Me too, but I should practice yoga every week.

• Albert: We should play soccer once a week.

Brenda: Good idea, but I would prefer to play more often.
