- I can talk about food and drink.

Let's Explore!

This is a great dinner! Who gets the bill? Let's find out!

* "To get the bill" means to pay for dinner.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Do you like the restaurant?
Vanessa: Yes! Thank you for the suggestion.
Peter: You're very welcome. What's your favorite dish?
Vanessa: I love the green curry. It's to die for!
Peter: That's true. I like the coconut rice.
Vanessa: I really shouldn't eat so much! I'm so full.
Peter: Ha ha. Make room for dessert!
Vanessa: Oohh ... don't worry! I'd love some mango pudding!
Peter: I could order it for you!
Vanessa: Fantastic. I need to go the bathroom. Excuse me.
Peter: Sure.
Vanessa: Oh! The bill!
Peter: Don't worry. It's my treat.
Vanessa: You shouldn't have!
Peter: Don't mention it! My pleasure.
Vanessa: This is very sweet of you. Next time it's on me!

Let's Practice!

Thanking People and Responding to Thanks

In polite conversations, it is important to thank people when they do something for you or help you.

You respond to thanks with expression like You're welcome or My pleasure.

Here are some useful expressions:

	Thanking People	Responding to Thanks
Formal	You shouldn't have! This is really kind/sweet of you!	My pleasure. You're very welcome. Don't mention it!
Informal	Thanks! Cheers!	Sure. No problem. No worries. It's nothing.

Examples:

- Ann: This is a nice surprise!
- Bob: My pleasure. I'm glad you like it.
- Allie: Hey! Thanks for the meal!
- Billy: Sure! No problem!
