Let's Start!

Pizza time! Are you ready to order? Which one would you like?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about food, eating and meals in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can express a goal or a purpose.
- I can say what I want to do or prefer to do.
- I can talk about food and drink.

Ask your partner:

- Do you eat everything?
- Are there things you don't like to eat?
- Are you vegetarian? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

John and Sally are at the pizza place. Do they agree on the same pizza? Let's find out!

* "To agree on something" means to have the same idea about something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: This pizzeria is cute!
John: I love to come here. Their pepperoni pizza is the best!
Sally: Oh ... I am a vegetarian. I don't like to eat meat.
John: That's not a problem. Let's ask the waiter.
Waiter: Are you ready to order?
John: I would like to get a pepperoni pizza.
Waiter: Very well. What about you?
Sally: Do you have any pizza without meat?
Waiter: Of course. We have an excellent four cheese pizza.
Sally: I would prefer to have vegetables.
Waiter: That's fine. Our garden pizza only has vegetable toppings.
Sally: That's exactly what I want to have. Thank you!
John: So? What do you think?
Sally: Hmm ... delicious! And thank you for the treat!
John: What? Hmm ... OK ... I need to go to an ATM!

Let's Practice!

What would you like to have? Let's hear it!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. I don't like to | A. here. |
| 2. I would like to get | B. vegetables. |
| 3. I love to come | C. eat meat. |
| 4. I would prefer to have | D. a pepperoni pizza. |
| 5. That's exactly | E. to go to an ATM! |
| 6. I need | F. what I want to have. |

Let's Practice!

Find the mistakes!

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. I love to come here. Their pepperoni pizza is the beast!
2. Oh ... I am a vegetable. I don't like to eat meat.
3. I could prefer to have vegetables.
4. That's fine. Our garden pizza only has vegetable spottings.
5. That's exactly what I would to have. Thank you!

Extension Activity

Learning Points

Verbs with Infinitives

After some verbs, you use the Infinitive structure (to + verb), like want to go or would like to swim, to express a goal, a purpose, or a preference.

Here is a list of verbs you use with Infinitives:

Verb	Example
want to	I want to have pizza.
like to	I like to play soccer. have to	I have to buy dinner. prefer to	I prefer to drink milkshakes.
need to	I need to go to my yoga class.

Examples:

• Bob: What do you need to do?

Ann: I have to go to the supermarket.

Bob: Would you like to go shopping?

Ann: I would prefer to stay at home.
