Let's Start!

I don't feel like going out ... Thanks, but not tonight!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information, involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you do when you don't feel well?
- Do you feel like staying at home?
- Do you feel like seeing your friends?

Can Do Statements

- I can make and respond to offers and invitations.
- I can apologize and respond to apologies.
- I can talk about food and drink.

Let's Explore!

Oh no ... Sally doesn't sound too good ... What's wrong?

* You make expressions with the verb "sound". "Sounds good" = Good idea. "You don't sound good" = You sound sick.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hey Sally!
Sally: Oh, hi Vanessa ...
Vanessa: You don't sound too good. Are you OK?
Sally: I don't feel well. I have a huge headache.
Vanessa: I'm sorry to hear that! Would you like to go with us to Thai Basil?
Sally: Thanks for the offer, but I don't feel like going out tonight.
Vanessa: Aw come on! You should come with us!
Sally: I'd love to, but I want to stay in, sorry.
Vanessa: No problem. Would you like us to bring you something to eat?
Sally: That's nice of you, but I don't feel like eating Thai. Too spicy.
Vanessa: Hmm ... you're right. Too bad you can't come!
Sally: So sorry about that.
Vanessa: Don't worry about it. Next time!
Sally: Sure. Enjoy your date!
Vanessa: Right ...

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!
